SUBJECT: Finance and Administration Department

Travel and Travel-Related Expenses - Compliance Review

(Report No. 00-03)

Dear Mayor Brown:

In accordance with the City's contract with McConnell, Jones, Lanier, and Murphy (MJLM), MJLM has completed a review of travel and travel-related expenses incurred by the Finance and Administration Department (the Department) for the period of July 1, 1998 through September 30, 1999.

MJLM designed the review to determine the Department's compliance with Administrative Procedure No. 2-5 and whether expenses were supported, computed, approved, recorded and reported properly. Their report, attached for your review, noted that the Department was in compliance overall with the travel policy. However, specific instances of noncompliance were noted and MJLM made recommendations that can help the Department improve compliance with the policy. Draft copies of the report were provided to Department officials. The findings and recommendations are presented in the body of the report and the views of the responsible officials are appended to the report as Exhibit I.

We appreciate the cooperation extended to the MJLM auditors by Department personnel during the course of the review.

Respectfully submitted,

The Honorable Sylvia R. Garcia City Controller City of Houston 901 Bagby, 8th Floor Houston, Texas 77002

Dear Controller Garcia:

I am pleased to present the final report of McConnell, Jones, Lanier, and Murphy's (MJLM) compliance review of the travel and travel-related expenses of the City of Houston's Finance and Administration Department (the Department) for the period July 1, 1998 through September 30, 1999. Our review was conducted in accordance with the Engagement Letter between the City of Houston and MJLM dated December 21, 1999.

The purpose of the review was to determine the Department's compliance with Administrative Procedure No. 2-5 (the travel policy), which is the City's policy governing the authorization and reimbursement of local and out-of-town travel and travel-related expenses. Our review included determining whether expenses were supported, computed, approved, recorded, and reported properly.

We have determined that the Department was in compliance with the travel policy during the review period. However, we noted specific instances of noncompliance and have made recommendations that can help the Department improve its compliance with the policy.

We are grateful for the cooperation of the Department's management team and staff personnel who assisted us during this compliance review.

Very truly yours,

Odysseus M. Lanier

Partner

1.0 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

McConnell, Jones, Lanier & Murphy, LLP (MJLM) performed a compliance review of the travel and travel-related expenses of the City of Houston's (the City) Finance and Administration Department (the Department) for the period July 1, 1998 through September 30, 1999. The purpose of the review was to determine the Department's compliance with Administrative Procedure No. 2-5 (the travel policy), which is the City's policy governing the authorization and reimbursement of local and out-of-town travel and travel-related expenses. The review also included determining whether travel expenses were supported, computed, approved, recorded, and reported properly.

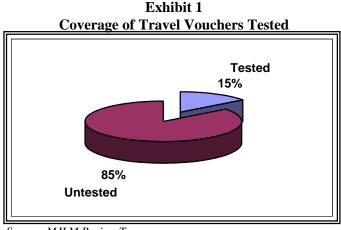

This report summarizes the results of the review and consists of five sections as follows:

- 1.0 Executive Summary
- 2.0 Background
- 3.0 Current Situation
- 4.0 Findings and Recommendations
- 5.0 Appendix

To test the Department's compliance with the travel policy, MJLM employed various techniques and review procedures. Our methodology included randomly selecting a sample of travel vouchers for testing and developing testing criteria from the travel policy.

Review Methodology

MJLM obtained a list of all of the travel vouchers issued during the review period. From a population of 271 vouchers, 40 were randomly selected for testing. Exhibit 1 depicts the sample coverage based on the voucher population.

Source: MJLM Review Team

The test sample included vouchers from object codes 3910 Travel-Training and 3950 Travel-Non-Training. Most travel and travel-related expenses are charged to these object codes. Conference and seminar registration fees and professional organization membership fees are charged to object codes 3900 Education and Training and 3905 Memberships, respectively. Expenses charged to these object codes were not tested. Instead, descriptions of the charges made to these codes were examined to determine if travel expenses had been misclassified. Based on the descriptions provided, no instances were noted where travel expenses appeared to be misclassified to object codes 3900 and 3905.

To develop compliance test criteria, MJLM obtained a copy of A.P. No. 2-5, identified 65 specific requirements in the policy, and developed compliance-related questions from the requirements. For example, section 7.2.1 of the policy establishes maximum average per diem meal rates as follows:

"The City will establish maximum average per diem rates which are reasonable for the travel locations.... Unless otherwise noted, employees will be reimbursed for actual expenses at a maximum average daily rate of $40.00 (including taxes and tips). The maximum average daily rate of $50.00 (including taxes and tips) has been established for the following metropolitan area: Boston, Massachusetts... Washington, D.C."

From this requirement, MJLM developed the question: "Are actual meal charges (including taxes and tips) for the period of travel equal to or below allowed per diem rates?" These questions were applied to each voucher with "yes," indicating compliance, "no," indicating noncompliance, and "N/A," indicating that the question did not apply to that particular voucher. For example, per diem meal charge questions did not apply to vouchers for conferences if meal charges were included in the registration fee. See Appendix 5.0 for a complete list of these questions. The Department could use this list of questions to develop a voucher review checklist.

CONCLUSION

Overall, the Department was in compliance with A.P. No. 2-5 during the review period. However, MJLM noted specific instances of departure from the travel policy that are discussed in the findings and recommendations section below.

Summary of Findings and Recommendations

FINDING

Expense reports were completed more than 10 calendar days after the trip for 15 of 40 vouchers and 10 working days after the trip for 7 of 40 vouchers.

Recommendation 1

Enforce the City's travel policy that requires the completion of an expense report no later than 10 days after completion of a trip.

FINDING

Travel expenses were misclassified on 12 of 40 travel vouchers.

Recommendation 2

Encourage correct classification of travel expenses by carefully reviewing travel-related object codes for misclassified expenses.

FINDING

In 5 of the 32 instances in which employees traveled by air, the canceled airline ticket stub was not attached to the expense report. The travel policy states in section 7.7.1 that when reimbursement is requested, employees must attach a copy of the canceled airline ticket stub to the expense report.

Recommendation 3

Require employees to attach a canceled ticket stub or a copy of the canceled ticket prepared by the airline to the expense report.

FINDING

Proper approvals were not obtained on travel documents for 5 of 40 vouchers. In one of these instances, the Travel Authorization Request was completed and approved after the trip.

Recommendation 4

Comply with travel policy provisions requiring approval of travel documents, particularly as they relate to approving travel before it begins.

FINDING

For 26 of the 40 vouchers, the authority, the employee, or both did not date travel forms.

Recommendation 5

Promote date stamping of travel documents at critical processing points, and encourage employees and authorities to date travel forms.

2.0 BACKGROUND

City of Houston employees attend a variety of local and out-of-town conventions, conferences, seminars, workshops, and meetings to gain knowledge specific to their area of responsibility, enhance professional skills, and conduct City business. The City's travel policy, revised May 1, 1999, outlines procedures for City employees to obtain approval for and reimbursement of travel expenses connected with both local and out-of-town travel. It designates those responsible for authorizing travel and sets forth the procedures and forms necessary to obtain approval for travel, travel advances, and reimbursement of travel expenses. The policy also distinguishes between travel expenses that are eligible and not eligible for reimbursement. The policy applies to all salaried and nonsalaried City employees and to all elected officials.

The City incurred $4.6 million in travel and travel-related expenses during the review period July 1, 1998 to September 30, 1999. Exhibit 2 presents total citywide travel and travel-related expenses incurred during this period. The City's fiscal year runs from July 1 through June 30.

The Finance and Administration Department directs the financial, administrative, and regulatory affairs of the City of Houston and implements and monitors citywide policies and procedures. The Department develops and manages the annual budget, assesses and collects taxes, manages the City's debt, and is responsible for regulatory compliance, emergency management, energy management, facilities management, materials and records management, information services, and employee pension and payroll. Finance and Administration also administers the Municipal Channel on cable television and the 9-1-1 emergency network.

The Department incurred $284,797 in travel and travel-related expenses during the review period. This amount represents 6 percent of the City's total travel and travel-related expenses. Exhibit 3 presents total travel and travel-related expenses incurred by the Department during the review period. Exhibit 4 compares the Department's travel and travel-related expenses to those of other City departments for the review period.

3.0 CURRENT SITUATION

The Director of Finance and Administration is responsible for the overall management of the Department and its staff of 570 employees. Exhibit 5 presents the Department's organization chart.

Exhibit 5
Finance and Administration Department Organization Chart

Employees use three forms to obtain approval for travel, travel advances, and reimbursement for travel expenses:

- 1. Travel Authorization to Attend Conventions, Conferences, or Training-related Workshops and Business-related Meetings (TAR),
- 2. Request for Travel Advance (RTA), and
- 3. Travel Expense Report and Travel-related Log (expense report or TER&L).

Employees must use a TAR to obtain approval for local and out-of-town travel. Effective May 1, 1999, department directors are required to submit an Appendix E, "Department Director's Personal Leave & Itinerary to Attend Conventions, Conferences, Workshops, and Business-Related Meetings", in addition to the TAR. The RTA is used to request a cash advance to pay for lodging, meals, and transportation costs while traveling. The TER&L, or expense report is used to record and request reimbursement for actual expenses incurred. Travel advances and actual travel expenses are reconciled on the RTA.

After an employee completes the TAR, it is forwarded to the appropriate authority for approval. If a travel advance is required, an RTA is also submitted for approval. The approved TAR and RTA are then forwarded to the Controller's Office for review and issuance of funds. Conference registration fees and airfare are often paid well in advance of a trip. This practice reduces overall travel costs because many conferences and airlines offer discounts for early payment. Employees are required to submit RTAs to the Controller's Office at least five days before the trip. Once the Controller's Office has received an approved TAR and RTA, the employee receives the travel advance and departs on the trip.

Within 10 days after completion of the trip, the employee is required to complete an expense report. The employee and the appropriate authority sign the expense report and submit it to the Controller's Office for liquidation. Liquidation is the process of settling the travel advance. If actual travel expenses are less than the travel advance, the employee attaches a check to the expense report to reimburse the City for the excess. If actual travel expenses are greater than the travel advance, the Controller's Office issues the employee a check for the difference. Exhibit 6 depicts the general flow of the travel authorization and reimbursement process.

4.0 FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

FINDING

Expense reports were completed more than 10 calendar days after the trip for 15 of 40 vouchers and 10 working days after the trip for 7 of 40 vouchers. The City's travel policy states in section 9.2 that employees are required to complete a TER&L no later than 10 days after completion of a trip. However, this provision is not consistent within the policy and is easily misinterpreted. Language on the RTA requires employees to submit expense reports within 10 working days after returning from a trip. In the instances noted, expense reports were completed between 1 and 268 days after 10 calendar days had expired and between 1 and 263 days after 10 working days had expired. The purpose of the 10-day rule is to ensure that travel expenses are recorded and excess travel advances are promptly returned to the City.

Exhibit 7 presents those vouchers that were not in compliance with the 10-day rule based on both calendar and working days.

Recommendation 1

Enforce the City's travel policy that requires the completion of an expense report no later than 10 days after completion of a trip.

Timely completion and submission of the TER&L for processing is an important internal control that helps the Department ensure that travel reimbursements are promptly issued and recorded.

FINDING

Travel expenses were misclassified on 12 of 40 travel vouchers. Generally, the City codes travel expenses for training seminars, conferences, and schools to 3910 Travel-Training Related if the event is intended to enhance the employee's job skills. Otherwise, travel costs are charged to Travel-Non-Training Related. Consolidated city reports and comparisons of travel expenses are meaningless if departments do not code travel expenses properly and consistently. Exhibit 8 presents classification errors noted during the review.

Recommendation 2

Encourage correct classification of travel expenses by carefully reviewing travel-related object codes for misclassified expenses.

FINDING

In 5 of the 32 instances in which employees traveled by air, the canceled airline ticket stub was not attached to the TER&L. The travel policy states in section 7.7.1 that when reimbursement is requested, employees must attach a copy of the canceled airline ticket stub to the TER&L. If the canceled ticket stub is not available, a certified copy of the canceled ticket prepared by the airline may be substituted. In the instances noted, there was no canceled ticket stub, or certified copy of the canceled ticket prepared by the airline, attached to the TER&L. It is possible that in the instances noted employees flew ticketless; however, the policy does not address documentation requirements for ticketless flights.

Recommendation 3

Require employees to attach a canceled ticket stub or a copy of the canceled ticket prepared by the airline to the expense report.

Departmental personnel responsible for reviewing employees' expense reports should thoroughly review all supporting documentation to ensure that all information required by the policy has been included with the travel voucher. If the required documentation has not been included, the Department should obtain the information before the travel voucher is submitted to the Controller's Office for processing.

FINDING

Proper approvals were not obtained on travel documents for 5 of 40 vouchers. In one of these instances, the TAR was completed and approved after the trip. The employee signed the TAR on 3/3/99, and the authority approved it on 3/26/99. However, the employee completed the trip on 1/21/99.

Section five of the policy establishes responsibilities for approval of travel documents and requires department directors or their designees to approve travel documents for their subordinates. When designated authorities do not approve travel documents, the intent of the travel policy is defeated, and an environment conducive to abuse is created. Exhibit 9 summarizes the exceptions.

Recommendation 4

Comply with travel policy provisions requiring approval of travel documents, particularly as they relate to approving travel before it begins.

Proper approval of expenditures by the appropriate authorities is an important internal control. If this control is not operating effectively, an atmosphere that encourages abuse may result. The Department should strictly enforce the travel policy's authorization provisions. All travel documents should be carefully reviewed to ensure that the appropriate authority has approved them.

FINDING

For 26 of the 40 vouchers, the authority, the employee, or both did not date travel forms. While, the policy does not specifically require employees or authorities to date travel forms, it is implied because the forms have a place for a date. The Department cannot successfully monitor compliance with certain travel policy provisions if travel forms are not dated. For example, the purpose of the TAR is to approve travel before expenses are incurred. There is no way to determine if travel is being approved prior to trips unless both the employee and authority date the TAR. Additionally, employees must submit expense reports within 10 days of completing a trip. Compliance with this provision cannot be monitored unless employees date the TER&L. Exhibit 10 presents those forms not dated by the authority or employee.

Dear Mr. Lanier:

We have received your audit report on the compliance review of our travel and travel-related expenses for the period July 1, 1998 through September 30, 1999. We are pleased that the overall conclusion of your review is that the Finance and Administration Department (F&A) is in compliance with Administrative Procedure (AP) 2-5. Our response to the exceptions noted is as follows:

I. Finding

Expense reports were completed more than 10 calendar days after the trip for 15 of 40 vouchers and 10 working days after the trip for 7 of 40 vouchers.

Response

Section 9.2 states that an expense report should be completed in 10 days. Section 9.2 does not define "days". However, section 9.1 and related forms identify 10 days as 10 working days. F&A interprets Section 9.2 as 10 working days, consistent with Section 9.1

F&A will enforce compliance with the travel policy by requiring employees to turn in expense reports within 10 working days of their return.

II. Finding

Travel expenses were mis-classified on 12 of 40 travel vouchers.

Response

The Travel Authorization Form (Appendix B) in effect during the period reviewed did not specify whether the travel was training- or non-training-related. We have added a question (#7) to the form (attached) for employee's to identify the nature of the travel in order to better classify the expenses.

III. Finding

In 5 of the 32 instances in which employees traveled by air, the canceled airline ticket stub was not attached to the expense report. The travel policy states in section 7.7.1 that when reimbursement is requested, employees must attach a copy of the canceled airline ticket stub to the expense report.

Response

F&A will reiterate to all employees who travel by air the requirement to attach to the expense report the ticket stub or a copy of ticket confirmation notice for ticketless travel. F&A will also reinforce reviewing process to ensure the completeness of all supporting documentation.

IV. Finding

Proper approvals were not obtained on travel documents for 5 of 40 vouchers. In one instance the Travel Authorization Request was completed and approved after the trip.

Response

During the departmental reorganization in early 1999, signature authority was not timely established and therefore caused confusion. Since then, F&A has required all travel requests be approved by the authorized chain of command and signature forms have been distributed to Business Office employees for use in review and enforcement.

V. Finding

For 26 of the 40 vouchers, the authority, the employee, or both did not date travel forms.

Response

F&A has added a separate field on the travel request form (attached) as a reminder to employees and authorities to provide dates. F&A Business Office employees who review the travel forms will date-stamp the forms upon receipt; however, this is not evidence of timeliness of approval by the appropriate authority. It is only evidence of the timeliness of processing.
